Johann Baptist Dallinger von Dalling the younger (1782–1868)

The first son of Johann Dallinger von Dalling the elder, he was born in Vienna and studied under his Father. He is renowned for painting landscapes and animals in the old Dutch style, as well as portraits and conversation-pieces. Some of his works are in the Belvedere and Liechtenstein Galleries. He died at Vienna in 1868.

Provenance

Richard Baron Cohen, The Twilight Collection.

Over 20 years, Richard Baron Cohen built up a collection of fine works of art including paintings, decorative arts and nearly 7,000 pieces of porcelain from the most renowned manufacturers. He called his treasures The Twilight Collection, after the sunset glow that lit up his home in Oyster Bay.
