Antique Folk Art Painting of Prudhoe Casle in Northumberland

£1,450

A charmingly primitive folk art painting depicting the south east prospect of Prudhoe Casle, Northumberland with a horseman leaving the ruined gatehouse being overlooked by a finely dressed couple and an artist, perhaps a self portrait of the artist himself, sketching the scene while seated under a tree. Oil on panel, presented in the original grain-painted frame simulating burr oak.

SKU: C4650

Height: 58 cm (22.75 inches)

Width: 73 cm (28.75 inches)
