Call +44 7545 220052

Antique French Gilt-Bronze Dressing-Table Mirror

£1,800

A fine ormolu toilet mirror attributed to the Boin-Taburet workshop and in their signature Louis XV style, the moulded frame, of waisted form, cast with rococo clasps and shell cresting. The back with pierced easel support and later hanging chain.

SKU: B4738
Height: 73 cm (28 .75 inches)
Width: 43 cm (17 inches)
Year: circa 1900

Georges Boin and Emile Taburet set up their workshop in 1873 producing exceptional quality metalwork, usually in the Louis XV style. They won a prestigious award at the Paris Exposition Universelle of 1889, and continued working into the early years of the 20th century. The offered mirror seems to be inspired by the works of the great mid 18th century rococo designer, Juste-Aurèle Meissonnier