Call +44 7545 220052

Pair of Antique Naive American Paintings in the Manner of Edward Hicks

£1,200

A charming pair of naive panel paintings in the manner of Edward Hicks, depicting rural scenes with cottagers, oil on oak panel, presented in their original burr oak frames

---

SKU: A3842/B3579
Height: 20 cm (8 inches) excluding frame
Width: 25 cm (10 inches) excluding frame
Year: American, circa 1825

Edward Hicks (April 4, 1780 – August 23, 1849) was an American folk painter and distinguished religious minister of the Society of Friends (aka "Quakers"). He became a Quaker icon because of his paintings.